

Comparative Literature Major Progress Form

Name: _____ Date: _____ UO ID: _____ UO E-mail: _____

All course requirements must be completed in order to graduate with a major in Comparative Literature.

All course requirements must be taken for a letter grade and passed with a grade of mid-C or better.

All exceptions to stated course requirements must be approved by the Comparative Literature Director of Undergraduate Studies. Students are advised to seek exceptions prior to enrolling in the course.

Focus Fields: Students choose two Focus Fields (see next page) from the approved lists. Individualized plans are possible, but must be approved by the Comparative Literature Director of Undergraduate Studies.

Core Requirements

Comparative Literature Courses (COLT)

	Subj.	No.	Term	Grade	Notes
COLT Elective 1*	COLT
COLT Elective 2*	COLT
Approaches to Comp Lit or Cultural Studies COLT 301 or COLT 305	COLT
Theories of Novel or Poetry COLT 302 or COLT 303	COLT
400-Level Elective	COLT
Capstone Seminar	COLT	415

* In lieu of one COLT elective, students may take COLT 410, sections 1 (in-house internship) and 2 (academic wrap-around course), worth 2 credits each, or an alternate approved internship (for example, through another department or Global Oregon) and COLT 410 section 2.

** COLT 408 may not be used as the 400-Level Elective

*** Students who are unable to schedule COLT 415 may petition to substitute another 400-level COLT course.

Language (not English): _____

The language requirement is completed by satisfying ONE of the following:

- ☐ I am a native speaker of the language.
- ☐ One upper division literature/film/theory course listed for my primary or secondary linguistic field was taught in the language (not English).

	Subj.	No.	Term	Grade	Notes
Linguistic field course

- ☐ I have completed three 300-level (or higher) courses taught in the same language (not English).

	Subj.	No.	Term	Grade	Notes
Language Course 1
Language Course 2
Language Course 3

Comparative Literature Major Progress Form

Focus Fields

Primary Linguistic Field: _____

- Three upper division courses in the Primary Linguistic Field; at least two of these courses must be on literature, film, or theory. The third may be on a non-literary topic relevant to the field such as history or philosophy.
- “Bridge” courses and courses whose focus is primarily on language acquisition skills do not count toward the Primary Linguistic Field.
- Refer to list of approved courses
- English may be used as the Primary Linguistic Field.
- Courses used to satisfy the Primary Linguistic Field requirement may also be used to satisfy the Language Requirement if the course is taught in the target language (not English).

	Subj.	No.	Term	Grade	Notes
Upper Division Course 1
Upper Division Course 2
Upper Division Course 3*

Choose Language and Culture Track OR Disciplines in Dialogue Track

☐ LANGUAGE AND CULTURE TRACK

Secondary Linguistic Field: _____

- Three upper division courses on literature, film, or theory in the Secondary Linguistic Field
- “Bridge” courses and courses whose focus is primarily on language acquisition skills do not count toward the Secondary Linguistic Field.
- Refer to list of approved courses
- English may be used as the Secondary Linguistic Field.

	Subj.	No.	Term	Grade	Notes
Upper Division Course 1
Upper Division Course 2
Upper Division Course 3*

☐ DISCIPLINES IN DIALOGUE TRACK

Disciplinary Field: _____

- Three upper division courses in a related discipline
- Courses taken in the Disciplinary Field may be spread out across several subject codes with the approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

	Subj.	No.	Term	Grade	Notes
Upper Division Course 1
Upper Division Course 2
Upper Division Course 3*

* In lieu of one Focus Field course, students may take COLT 410, sections 1 (in-house internship) and 2 (academic wrap-around), worth 2 credits each, or an alternate approved internship (for example, through another department or Global Oregon) and COLT 410 section 2.